

Jonathan M. Trapp

Corporate Compensation Plans of Wisconsin, Inc.

Jonathan Trapp is Senior Vice President of Corporate Compensation Plans of Wisconsin, Inc. (CCPW). Jon began his insurance career in 1992 as an agent for Armitage, Inc. He has worked with individuals, businesses and other organizations in life, health, and group insurance benefits and is a licensed intermediary in Wisconsin for Life, Health, and Accident.

Jon is an active volunteer for Great Rivers United Way, Inc. working in fund raising and allocations. He has been recognized as the organization's Outstanding Volunteer in 2003 and is currently Vice Chair of the Fund Distribution Steering committee. Jon is on the Board of Directors of the Coulee Region Humane Society and currently serves as its Vice President. Jon is active in his children's education and is a member of the Development Committee of Three Rivers Waldorf School. He and his wife, Lauri, are also active in politics.

Jon completed undergraduate studies at the University of Wisconsin – Madison in History. In 2001, he completed graduate studies at the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse receiving a Masters of Business Administration. He developed Armitage's first accurate method of statistically projecting self-insured health costs, and was the in-house coverage analyst for the NCMIC LTD Book from 1998-2002. Jon structured the successful reorganization of Armitage, Inc. in 2003.

jtrapp@armitageinonline.com
www.corpcompinc.com

